Scriptures and Questions for Reflection:

Scriptures and Questions for Reflection: 1 Samuel 17; Zechariah 4:6; Ephesians 6:10-18

Scripture: 1 Samuel 17:4-11

- Describe Goliath and why fighting him would have been a formidable task.
- What were the consequences for the winner and the loser?
- Why were Saul and the Israelites terrified and how does that compare with our occasional reaction in times of fear?

Scripture: 1 Samuel 17:16, 23-27

- How was Goliath's behavior similar to how Satan taunts us?
- What was the reward for the Israelite soldier who defeated Goliath?
- How was David's reaction to Goliath's taunting/strutting different from that of the Israelite soldiers? Why do you think that was so?

Scripture: 1 Samuel 17:32-39; Ephesians 6

- Why was David not worried about Goliath? What gave David the confidence he would be victorious over Goliath?
- Why did David choose not to use Saul's armor?

Scripture: 1 Samuel 17:40-47; Zechariah 4:6

- How were the weapons different between David and Goliath? How does that apply today?
- According to Zechariah 4:6, how does God choose to accomplish His will? Why do you think that is so?

Scripture: Ephesians 6:10-18

- According to Ephesians 6:10-12, who is our true enemy?
- Using Ephesians 6:13-18, list each piece of the spiritual warrior's armor and its function.
- How does using God's armor help us be victorious?
- What areas of our lives do we still need to surrender to Jesus for us to see victory?
